Webinar Series 2017-18

SAPs and SICCs as the conduit to stakeholder engagement and support

October 11, 2017  3:00 - 4:30 Eastern

The SAP and SICC membership usually reflects the key constituencies that are important in understanding the impact of policy decisions and influencing practice change. But to what extent are SAPs and SICCs acting as the conduit to reach key stakeholders in their own networks and the networks in which they participate?

In this interactive webinar, we will explore the issue with state leaders and members of their SAP and SICC. Participants are encouraged to contribute to the discussion and offer other state examples.
